TULSI KUMAR GETS UNPLUGGED WITH TU HAI KI NAHI FOR ROY

Tulsi Kumar recently recorded an unplugged version of the romantic song, Tu Hai Ki Nahi for the Ranbir Kapoor, Arjun Rampal and Jacqueline Fernandez starrer Roy, helmed by Vikramjit Singh. Like last year — when the singer's rendition, the romantic Baarish for Yaariyan became a big hit — 2015 too has begun on a good note with Tu Hai Ki Nahi registering high viewership after its release on the internet.

Since it's a soothing romantic track, the makers decided to release an unplugged version by Tulsi Kumar. The video, featuring Ranbir and Jacqueline, was released online on the music company and production house T-Series' channel on a popular video-sharing website.

Pleased with how 2014 turned out for her, Tulsi Kumar says, "By God's grace, I sang some beautiful songs that have been received really well by my audience. Starting with Baarish in Yaariyan, followed by the quirky, fun-filled Phacebook Pyaar in Kuku Mathur Ki Jhand Ho Gayi to again a romantic number Kuchh To Hua Hai in Singham Returns, the last year has been a great one." She also turned a voice overartist for kids' channel on the popular video-sharing site.

Roy, produced by Bhushan Kumar, Divya Khosla Kumar and Krishan Kumar, releases February 13.
