Tulsi's Bengali singing debut

Singer Tulsi Kumar (right) has sung her first Bengali song in a soon-to-release Bengali flick. The singer was excited when offered the song and readily agreed. "As soon as the song came together, there was only one name in my mind, that of Tulsi. When I proposed this to the producer of the film, they were in complete agreement and so we got in touch with Tulsi, and fortunately, she loved the idea of singing a Bengali song and came on board," says Arindam Chatterjee, the music director.
